

be Different study in Russia!

Courses available with over 50 Universities of the Russian Federation:

- Commerce: Management, Business, Finance, Economics
- Engineering: Electronic, Nanotechnology, Electrical, Biomedical, Mechanical, Aeronautics & Aeronautical Engineering
- Petroleum Engineering: Mining and Petroleum, Pipeline Transportation, Automation of Production Processes, Oil and Gas Business
- Computers: Software, Security, Computer Science, Network, Information and Analytical systems, Applied IT
- Construction: Architecture, Construction, Maintenance, Renewal and Technical Protection of Roads, Bridges and Tunnels and many more!

Russian universities offer low tuition fees starting from $2400 per year

Knowledge is Power

why to study Russian?

- Every year the number of Russian émigrés in the US and EU increases, so the language is becoming widespread.
- Russian is one of the official languages of the state of New York.
- ¼ of scientific journals are printed in Russian.
- Over 20 countries have Russian as their official language.
- Russia has a 100% literacy rate.
- It has vast natural resources; so business opportunities in the region are increasing all the time.
- Russian is one of the six official and working languages of the UN.

5 facts about studying in Russian medium in Russia:

1. There is no need to know or learn any Russian beforehand: they will teach you Russian language within a year during Preparatory course.
2. Russian medium opens chance for scholarship which can cover up to 100% of tuition fee.*
3. Russian language helps to land internships.
4. Russian language helps to get part time and full time jobs after completion.
5. Russian medium is cheaper than English medium.

* student must have received more than 85% grades in previous education level